

I strongly oppose efforts by the Banking industry to weaken current protections afforded consumers via "no-call" lists. I don't want my telephone to have the same status as a billboard by being open to unsolicited marketing efforts.